AUGUST 24 TH AND 25 TH, 2020

MONDAY 4 ELUL * AUGUST 24 TH

SESSION #1: 1:00 PM - 2:40 PM Plenary Session

- Introduction ~Rabbi Nochem Kaplan

How to effectively get children back on track after the six-month hiatus.

- What must schools do to get children back into routines (while maintaining distances restrictions) and how to get home a school to be on the same page regarding expectations.

Dr. David Pelcovitz

SESSION #2: 2:45 PM - 4:15 PM Concurrent Sessions

1. The First Day of School:

- As we return to our classrooms, after many months, we may need to adjust our frame of mind to a different reality and mindset of the students; how that will affect the opening of the school year.

In this 2-part workshop Rabbi Feldman will present:

1 - How to begin the new school year with an upbeat enthusiastic approach, along with specific strategies that can be immediately implemented.

2 - Participants will explore how to be prepared to face expected and unexpected challenges in the classroom.

Rabbi Levi Feldman

2. Reviewing Kriya Skills

- Kriya is the most essential skill children must master in order to get ahead and be successful at any Limudei Kodesh subject. Over the last six months, many children will have regressed and we must remediate to help them progress. How best to remediate?

Rabbi Moshe Schwartz & Rabbi Zalman Raskin

3. Hanhala Post Covid-19 (for principals)

- Mechanchim have had to work harder than ever over the COVID pandemic and expectations are that the new year will be challenging as well. How to inspire and strengthen mechanchim and teachers.

Rabbi Mendel Greenbaum, Rabbi Yaakov Garfinkel &
Rabbi Yehosha Lustig

SESSION #3: 4: 30 PM - 6:00 PM Plenary Session

Undoing the Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic:

- Children have been powerfully impacted by their absence from school, the effects of being under pressure to learn independently and alone, from listening to adults talk about the devastation of the pandemic and the inherent fears it invokes and in many cases the inevitable chaos at home. How does a school teacher help the children overcome?

Dr. Norman Blumenthal

SESSION 4: 8:30 PM - 9:30 PM Plenary Session

דברי חיזוק למחנכים

Rabbi Yehuda Leib Schapiro

TUESDAY 5 ELUL * AUGUST 25 TH

SESSION #1: 1:00 PM - 2:40 PM - Concurrent Sessions

1. The First day of School: (session 2).

- As we return to our classrooms, after many months, we may need to adjust our frame of mind to a different reality and mindset of the students; how that will affect the opening of the school year. In this 2-part workshop Rabbi Feldman will present.

1 - How to begin the new school year with an upbeat enthusiastic approach, along with specific strategies that can be immediately implemented.

Rabbi Levi Feldman

2. Planning for the Management of the first week of School (for administrators.)

- These are unusual times which call for unusually effective organizational skills. A discussion about the “how” of it.

Dr. Chaim Botwinick

SESSION #2: 2:45 PM - 4:15 PM - Concurrent Sessions

1. Fundraising in a Post COVID-19 world.

(For Administrators)

- The economy has suffered a serious setback and the first to suffer are schools and charities. The times call for creative ways to secure the needed funding of our mosdos.

Rabbi Yitzchok Wolf

2. Internet Safety

- How Mosdos must work toward greater technological safety. We have opened the door to student on-line learning and other activities. We must be aware of how children are using the internet and know how to put appropriate filters on. This relates to school and home equally.

Rabbi S. Kleinman and the LEC Tech team

SESSION #3: 4:30 PM - 6:30 PM - Plenary Session

Helping children who struggle in the Post COVID-19 Environment:

- For a child struggling with any kind of learning issue the absence from school has been devastating. Unable to productively learn in a distance mode he has academically vegetated since March, how can this child get back into a learning groove?

Dr. Norman Blumenthal

SESSION #4 8: 00 PM - 9:30 PM - Plenary Sessions

Effectively involving parents in a post-COVID era:

- To be successful, especially this year schools will have to work closely with parents in order for children to be able to maximize their potential.

Dr. David Pelcovitz
