

The Parsha Post

NEW HOTLINE FOR MOTHERS IN DISTRESS

An expectant mother was confused and nervous due to strange behavior caused by her unborn twins.

The expectant mother, young Mrs. Rivkah Abramson, was terrified due to the unusually strong kicking.

"I seriously feared for my life," said the mother. "Walking past Idols-R-Us, I'd feel painful kicking. It was unbearable! Then I'd pass a synagogue, and once again the dreadful kicking would begin."

In response, the great S&E Academy – founded by Rabbi Shem Noachson – has opened a 24-hour help service (1-800 ASK SHEM). "After just one conversation with this wise sage," said Mrs. Abramson, "I had the clarity I needed to carry my children for the full nine months without fear."

HISTORIC BLESSING TRANSFER

The elderly Rabbi Yitzchak Abramson was about to grant the special blessings that he had inherited from his father. This package includes heavenly dew, rain, grain, fine wine, and becoming a powerful ruler.

Popular opinion was that the Firstborn Eisav (a.k.a. Harry) would receive these blessings, yet in a surprise move, Yitzchok granted them to Eisav's younger brother, Yaakov. Foul play is suspected.

"Clearly, Yaakov tricked his father into giving him the blessing, which seems entirely out of character for Yaakov, who always seemed more interested in his books than blessings," noted TNS commentator, Mr. Sammy Shazakstein. "Yaakov appears to have won the blessing now, but who knows what the future will bring."

FRATERNAL FEUD TURNS NASTY

Rabbi Yaakov Isaacson, a scholar and master lentil soup chef, has been reported missing since yesterday. It is likely that he has fled for fear of his life.

"He's been a trickster since the day we were born," cried out his brother Eisav Isaacson, in an exclusive interview with TNS. "I am furious!

After years of convincing Father that I am the one worthy of his blessings, now my sneaky little brother stole them away from me! He's a swindler... a conniving Ganav! It's time for REVENGE!"

Yaakov's Red Hot Lentil Soup

Comes in all your favorite varieties:

- Lentil Deluxe – for mourning (or morning)
- Hunter's Haliteini – for hungry exhausted men
- Red Delicious – for sophisticated Edomites

"It's worth a birthright."

1-800-GO-LENTIL

